Berkswell

Dense texture and all the flavour you would hope for from a well made ewes' milk cheese. Flowery with the characteristic sweet caramel, that lingers warmly in the mouth. 'Gold medal winner'

Bleu D'Auvergne

From the Auvergne region in south-central France, it has been produced since the middle of the 19th century. Bleu d'Auvergne is made in the traditional manner from cow's milk and features blue veining throughout.

Brie du Meaux- The most famous of all Brie. Still traditionally artisan made. Its chalky texture changes to generous cream after 8 weeks' ripening showing light ruddy edges. Full and fruity flavour, and matured by Hennart. Fr.
